When Nature
Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

THE STREET FAIR.

The Third Day's Crowd Was No Slouch, Thank You.

NOW, LET'S HAVE ANOTHER ONE

"I came, I saw, I saw..."

And so did some fifteen thousand others!

Is about the best paraphrase of the Casarlem when applied to the Maysville Street Fair.

The "conquered" part belongs of right to Colonel William H. Fremont, for despite the predictions of Mossbacks and the rebuffs of "kickers," the Colonel waded into the business with a determination to succeed—and today there's no one who will not say that he accomplished everything he started out to do, and that he did so to the entire satisfaction of the management and to the public as well.

Saturday's crowd was fully as large as that of Friday, and the total attendance for the three days may be safely stated at 15,000.

As on the preceding days there was plenty of free entertainment and the visitors enjoyed themselves immensely.

People from a distance lingered till late in afternoon, some remaining till evening, while home folks crowded the streets till dangerously near midnight.

Today everything has resumed normal conditions and Maysville's first Street Fair has passed into history.

Let's have another in the fall of 1900.

PREMIUMS AWARDED.

Next finest silk quilt, Mrs. Pearce Browning, city; the stand lamp, George F. Brown.

FAIR PLAY.

Colonel J. B. Steers and Messrs. Klein and Eady, the Committee who came over from Nicholasville to attend the Street Fair, practically closed a contract with Colonel William H. Fremont to take charge of a similar enterprise for their city. They have secured the right man to give them a crowd of visitors—and that's what is wanted.

Mr. Cyrene has no superior as a slack-wire artist, and when it comes to the cakewalk she is the personification of grace. Wherever she has appeared in this "land" she has taken the audience by storm, and during the Street Fair here, although the stage was all too small, she frequently had three encores.

This record is unbreakable—during the three days Fair there wasn't a single "scrap" or a drunken person seen on the streets, and yet there were 25 saloons wide open.

Ohio goes the $25 in gold. H. L. P. Cooper of Aberdeen is the lucky man. Following is the report of the Committee to award the prize:

MAYSVILLE, KY., May 29, 1899.
We, the undersigned, a special Committee appointed by the Street Fair Company, have this day examined the sales book of John L. Winter, the "Price Fighter," for the three days of May 25th, 26th and 27th. Cooper of Aberdeen, O.

J. H. HENDERSON,
J. E. PARKER,
PERRY FRANKEL.

MAYSVILLE, KY., May 29th, 1899.
The Committee wishes to thank the incomparable Maysville Band for the abundance of good music furnished during the Street Fair. They certainly did themselves proud and we shall ever remember them with gratitude. We also wish to thank our painstaking Mayor, Chief of Police and assistants and Police Judge for courtesies rendered. To our General Committee, C. C. Hopper, A. F. Respass and Claude Forrest, and to our Committee on Horses, J. C. Everett, John Gabby and J. W. Fitzgerald, our thanks are also due. To The Bulletin and THE LEDGER our special thanks are also due and to all others who in any way assisted in the success of the Street Fair.

H. B. OWENS.

$100—REWARD—$100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Saturday a contract was closed between the Streetcar Company, the owners of the Fairgrounds and Mr. Williamson.

The latter, who last season managed a park at Little Rock, Ark., will open here about the 12th of June, and during the summer will present none but first-class attractions.

For the benefit of ladies, T. S. LEDGER is pleased to state that no liquors will be sold at the park, and that the best of order will be maintained at all times.

FILL OUT THE BLANKS.

Chance to Secure Employment When the Shoe Factory Starts.

Before the deal is completed for starting the Shoe Factory the new Company desires to learn how many employees, and their ability, can be secured in this city.

For the purpose of obtaining this information circulars have been left at the groceries of M. C. Hutebison and Reese Wallingford, and Armstrong's Drugstore, in the Fifth and Sixth wards, and at Henry W. Ray's, J. Jas. Wood & Sons, J. C. Peacor's and Chenoweth's Drugstores.

Be prompt in having the blanks filled out, causing as little delay as possible.

Now is the chance for parties who wish steady employment.

SOME MORE THEFTS.

'Squire Williams Touched For $60 and Miss Fant Loses a Fine Pin.

Notwithstanding that several supposed crooks had been jailed the night before, it seems there were others.

Saturday while seated near the Central Hotel 'Squire Charles W. Williams had a wallet taken from an inside coat pocket.

It contained $60 in cash and some $400 in notes—the latter of no value to any but the owner.

Mr. Williams suspected a colored man who was standing near, but when the officers searched him nothing was found to indicate his guilt.

Miss Ottilie Fant of Flemingsburg had the misfortune to lose a valuable enameled pin, set with a large diamond.

There were reports of several other losses but they could not be traced to any reliable source.

Had THE LEDGER'S warning of Thursday been heeded the thieves would have fared badly. As it was, some of them made pretty good "graff" and got away, while others have for several days been guests of the city at the Hotel de McIlvaine.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Eloquent Sermon By the Rev. J. W. Porter at Dietrich's Park.

The annual Memorial Sermon was preached before the members of the G. A. R. and a large audience at Dietrich's Park yesterday afternoon by the Rev. J. W. Porter of the First Baptist Church.

The full text of this eloquent discourse will be found on the fourth page of THE LEDGER.

The graves of the soldier dead—both Federal and Confederate—will be decorated by Joe Heiser Post, G. A. R., tomorrow afternoon; and while every effort has been made to place a flag upon the grave of every soldier, if any has been overlooked the Committee will be glad to have some one apply to the Superintendent of the Cemetery for a flag and have it placed at the grave.

The soldiers of the Spanish-American War, under command of Captain Horace V. Cochran, will join with Heiser Post in the Memorial exercises.

The parade will form at G. A. R. Hall at 1:30 p. m., and headed by Rudy's Drum Corps will march to the Cemetery.

After the graves are decorated the Hon. R. C. Barnes of Catlettsburg will deliver the address at Dietrich's Park; or, if it rains, at the Courthouse.

Well, come in and let us show you what a beautiful Clock you can get for a small amount of money. We have all styles and prices, every one warranted or your money refunded.

BALLENGER, Jeweler and Optician.

The personality of the late Alfred Worick has been appraised at $51.

A meeting will be held in the Board of Trade rooms in the Cox Building, Tuesday from 4 to 10 p. m. to which all interested in the establishment of a public library are urged to attend.

The C. and O. gave seven carloads of Dunkards a fast ride in a special train Thursday. They left Roanoke, Va., where their annual meeting was held, an hour behind the regular train, and arrived in Cincinnati Friday morning two hours ahead of schedule time.

You can always get the real news when you go away from home. The Louisville Commercial says "the Maysville shoe factory will soon resume operations and will employ one hundred hands. Citizens of Maysville have agreed to donate $500 a year for five years to the Cincinnati parties who will run the business."

James McDonald, for fifty years an honored resident of Dover, died there Friday evening at 7 o'clock, aged 76. He was a native of St. Catherine's, Canada. Surviving are four sons and three daughters. He was a stone-mason and general mechanic, and it is said that he has built more houses than any man in Mason county.

THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF MAYSVILLE'S BOARD OF TRADE!

Coupled with the co-operation of liberal-minded people who are not members of that body, various attractions will be offered in a few days in our city that will doubtless bring many visitors from this and adjoining counties. We are promised by the managers of the near-approaching Street Fair that many novel and interesting features will be presented.

"You'll come sure," and when you are here combine a little business with pleasure. Such bargains as Hechinger at present is offering and selling rarely are obtained. It goes without saying that the qualities throughout the various lines in Hechinger's are the very best—no cheap clothing, no cheap shoes, no cheap furnishings, only the highest types of merchandise is handled in this store. BUT at prices that are warranted lower than you pay for inferior goods away from home. Hechinger's for many years has been, and is now.

THE HOME STORE.

Ask those who occasionally buy clothing away from home. They know.

Again, we say we do not quote prices in our ads. You cannot quote clothing like other commodities, such as wheat, corn or cattle. Come and see what we have, examine qualities, learn prices, then look elsewhere; your judgment will lead you aright. During the Fair

MAKE OUR STOREROOM HEADQUARTERS.

Among other liquids on hand we always have an abundance of ice water. The latter, like our clothing, you'll find the best in town. We will also take charge of your packages during your stay in town.
